

City Engineer

Pace Engineering

1730 South Street

Redding, CA 96001

Department Purpose

The City Engineer performs general engineering services for Public Works and Planning Projects including project design, engineering, surveying, map reviews, planning reviews, preparation of bid and construction documents, bid assistance, construction management and observation, and other related services.