Profile

Officer Jeremiah Capurro grew up in the North Bay area of Sonoma County. Out of high school he moved to San Francisco to attend film school. After residing in San Francisco and working in the film industry for several years he moved back to the North Bay. Ultimately Jeremiah would combine his passions for the visual arts and mountain biking as a designer & product photographer in the mountain bike industry. After a long career in the mountain bike industry Jeremiah relocated to Siskiyou County where his family was originally from to pursue a career in law enforcement. He attended the law enforcement academy here in Siskiyou County and began his career as a police officer for the Mt Shasta Police Department for two years. Jeremiah enjoys watching and playing all sports from football, cycling, motorsports, basketball but considers himself a baseball fanatic.
