Animal Control Call Hours: 24/7 (530) 926-7540

The Animal Control Department operates within the Mt. Shasta Police Department and handles all domestic animal calls within the City Limits of Mt. Shasta. Dog licenses are issued by this Department every June, delinquent in July and are renewable on an annual basis.

Announcements

NEW 2011 LAWS regarding service animals. For information contact Animal Control at (530) 926-7540. The City of Mt Shasta does not offer specific service animal tags.

Please be courteous of your neighbors and community by using a leash and picking up after your pets. Carry plastic gloves and a bag just in case!

Animal tethering is dangerous to your pet and punishable by fines and/or jail. Please use a trolley line or kennel.

Animals are not allowed downtown for any reason during special events (except service animals). Please leave your pets at home where they can remain cool and comfortable in the summer heat.

The City of Mt. Shasta Animal Control Officer enforces California Animal Law. The City contracts with the Siskiyou Humane Society for rescue, impounds and adoptions, microchip implants, pet owner education services and pet training.

The Animal Control Officer responds to:

- Public complaints such as Dog Bites or violations of Leash Law
- Animal Rescue
- Conflict resolution
- Interdepartmental requests
