

Resources

The California Governor's Prevention Advisory Council (GPAC)

Coordinates the State's strategic efforts to reduce the incidence and prevalence of inappropriate alcohol, tobacco and other drugs used by youth and adults. The California Attorney General's Crime and Violence Prevention Center site SafeState dedicates itself to preventing crime and violence in California and is packed with useful information. Located on this site is a guide entitled Tips for Parents which addresses underage drinking in California.
