4. Public Comment Welcome to our meeting. The committee invites the public to address the committee on matters on the Consent Agenda and matters not listed on the agenda that are within the committee’s subject matter jurisdiction. If the Public wishes to comment on matters that are on the agenda, the committee will request comment when the matter is heard. The committee reserves the right to limit public comment on matters that are outside its subject matter jurisdiction.  The committee may regulate the total amount of time on particular issues and for speakers (typically 3 minutes). The committee may place additional time limits on comments, to ensure members of the public have an opportunity to speak and the committee is able to complete its business. A group may be asked to choose a spokesperson to address the committee on a subject matter, or the committee may limit the number of persons addressing the committee whenever a group of persons wishes to address the committee on the same subject matter. Speakers may not cede their time to another. If there is an item of great community significance/interest and is within the committee’s subject matter jurisdiction, the committee may request the item be agendaized for further consideration at a subsequent committee meeting.
